

W. J. Burns and Dan Lehon Summoned by Solicitor Dorsey To the Frank Retrial Hearing

Subpoenas Served Upon the Noted Detective and Assistant After Their Return From Marietta—J. E. Duffey Arrested and Held as Witness for Resumption of Hearing Monday Morning.

STORY OF MARY RICH DENIED IN AFFIDAVIT GIVEN TO SOLICITOR

Forgery, Bribery, Trickery, Intimidating Witnesses, Threatening to Expose Scandals of Girls, All Made Against Men Who Are Working for the Defense. Prisoner's Character Attacked.

Developments in the Leo Frank case last night included the serving of subpoenas upon Detective William J. Burns and his lieutenant, Dan S. Lehon, demanding their presence before Solicitor Dorsey at the Frank new trial hearing before Judge Hill, and the arrest of J. E. Duffey, who was thrown in jail to await the resumption of the hearing Monday morning.

Lehon and Burns were served with papers in their apartments in the Piedmont hotel shortly after their return from the strenuous trip to Marietta. They were conferring with attorneys for Frank's defense at the time. The subpoenas were served by Deputy Sheriff Newt A. Garner.

DUFFEY PUT UNDER ARREST.

Duffey was arrested by Deputy Garner about 10 o'clock at 21 West Alexander street, where he was spending the night with a friend. He was carried to prison on an attachment issued by Judge Ben Hill Friday morning, when Solicitor Dorsey stated that Duffey was eluding the solicitor's deputies who sought to have him testify before the hearing.

Upon catching sight of the solicitor's deputy, Duffey, who was sitting upon the porch of the residence at No. 21, exclaimed: "I was just fixing to surrender."

Duffey's testimony relative to blood spots found on the second floor of the pencil factory. He was a witness for Frank at Frank's trial and testified that when he was wounded on the hand some time before the trial, the blood did not drop on the floor.

An affidavit which he recently made for the defense, however, avers that blood did drop on the floor at the identical spots at which blood was found near the lathing machine, and which was contended by the state to have come from wounds on Mary Phagan's body.

WANTS TO GET TRUTH.

It was to get at the truth of these conflicting statements that Solicitor Dorsey sought to examine Duffey before Judge Hill.

The serving of a subpoena upon Burns will necessitate the delivery of his trip ticket to Oklahoma, where he goes to testify in a case now in the courts of that state. He wired officials there last night that he would not be able to leave Atlanta until he had appeared before Judge Hill.

The papers were issued for both Burns and Lehon by Solicitor Dorsey. Friday afternoon, shortly following adjournment of the retrial hearing, Dorsey would not state to reporters the nature of questions which he plans to put to the detectives in his proposed examination.

SURPRISES SPRUNG.

When Solicitor Dorsey opened his trial before Judge Ben Hill yesterday morning, the extraordinary move was made to cap the surprise by subpoenas were issued from the solicitor's office demanding the presence of Detective William J. Burns and his assistant, Dan S. Lehon, to appear before the retrial hearing for an examination by Dorsey on Monday.

The subpoenas will be served some time today. Mr. Dorsey will not divulge the nature of the questions he plans to put to the sleuths. When asked by a reporter for The Constitution to merely smile, saying: "Oh, I merely want to ask them a few questions."

GREAT FILE OF A FIDAVITS.

When the retrial hearing adjourned at 10 o'clock, after a week's adjournment, the trial sat at a table that was piled high with affidavits.

A large number of these documents have been made by witnesses who are

No Violence Reported.
Denver, Colo., May 1.—State and federal authorities co-operated today in an effort to settle the Colorado coal strike, but tonight the situation was unchanged, except no violence had been reported.

Regular troops occupy the Trinidad, Fremont county, and Walsenburg districts, but tonight the situation was unchanged, except no violence had been reported.

The action of Secretary Garrison in granting the joint request of Major Holbrook and Governor Ammon for more federal troops, announced late today, has served to calm the situation in quarters where it was feared the federal troops might not be sufficient to maintain order.

While Major Holbrook's request for additional troops, the question of federal troops still remains unsettled. The federal troops are still in the hands of strikers, who had planned to vote on the question of disarming the federal troops.

Ordered Colored "Cleaned Out."
Trinidad, Colo., May 1.—The direct action of the federal troops on the national guard gave an order to "clean out" the colored people from the town of Trinidad.

Men Strike Despite Order to Contrary From President of Union.

Charleston, W. Va., May 1.—Ten thousand miners in the Kanawha coal fields quit work today in the face of an order from the president of the United Mine Workers of America, and it is expected that the strike will continue for some time.

When the president of the United Mine Workers of America, and the operators began several weeks ago the mine made 24 demands, which later were reduced to seven. The operators refused to meet the demands, and the strike was called.

AGREEMENT TO ARMISTICE
SIGNED BY THREE FORCES
IN MEXICAN IMBROGLIO

Reported That Representatives of the United States, Federals and Rebels Have Signed Pact in Mexico City—Blanque's Order Saves an American Red Cross Official From Death as Spy.

Mexico City, May 1.—It is reported here that a tripartite agreement to an armistice was signed here today by representatives of the United States, the federals and the rebels. Jose Manuel Carrasco de Oliveira, the Brazilian minister, confirmed the report except as to the actual signing of the agreement.

RYAN SAVED FROM DEATH AS SPY.
Mexico City, May 1.—Dr. Edward Ryan, of the American Red Cross, who was captured at Zacatecas by command of General Joaquin Maas, and sentenced to death as a spy, was saved by an order signed by Minister of War Blanquet, at 11 o'clock last night.

Dr. Ryan will be brought to this city and turned over to the Brazilian legation.

Vera Cruz, May 1.—President Huerta today ordered the immediate release of Dr. Edward Ryan, an American Red Cross official, who was threatened with execution as a spy in Zacatecas. The release was ordered after urgent personal representations to President Huerta by William W. Cananda, the American consul here.

Huerta telegraphed to Mr. Cananda late today that he did not know that Dr. Ryan was to be put to death, but that he had ordered the federal commander at Zacatecas to release him immediately and give him transportation to Mexico City. From the capital President Huerta promised to send him to Vera Cruz.

NO NEUTRAL ZONE AT TAMPIO.

Washington, May 1.—General Carranza telegraphed Secretary Bryan from Chihuahua tonight that the constitutionalists would not enter into any formal agreement for the establishment of a neutral zone around the oil wells at Tampico. He said, however, that as far as his forces were concerned, the oil companies could resume operations without fear of molestation.

Much Being Accomplished By the Three Mediators

Washington, May 1.—Assurances of peace, already made by Carranza, were being accomplished, a well-posted authority said. The situation in the city was being improved, and the general situation was being improved.

First, acceptance of good offices by the United States; second, acceptance by Huerta; third, acceptance by Carranza; fourth, suspension of hostilities by Huerta; fifth, suspension of hostilities by Carranza.

A sixth development, it was expected, would further emphasize what was being done.

The Spanish ambassador's conference with the mediators was not to deliver any definite development today, which might lead to a statement later, but its purpose was to disclose the situation.

NOTED DETECTIVE FORCED TO SEEK REFUGE IN HOTEL FROM BIG CROWD

Mob Surrounded Whitlock House, Yelling for Him to Come Out, and for a Time Violence Was Feared—The Crowd Quietly by Agreement That Burns Get Into Automobile and Leave Cobb County at Once.

TROUBLE BEGAN WHEN BURNS AND A CITIZEN HAVE AN ALTERCATION

Amidst Jeers and Hoots Detective Was Buddled Into Auto and Started for Atlanta While Eggs Began to Fly—Lehon Sought Safety in Sheriff's Office and Was Spirited Out of Marietta.

Attacked by a prominent business man, and threatened by a crowd of angry citizens, from whom he sought refuge in the Whitlock hotel, William J. Burns was rushed from Marietta to Atlanta early last night in an automobile to prevent further trouble. From Marietta, however, he stated that he did not believe the detective was in any serious danger during the Cobb county trip.

His lieutenant, Dan S. Lehon, of New Orleans, found safety in the sheriff's office in the courthouse. In the meantime, a crowd, 200 strong, surged around the hotel, and for awhile there were fears for the noted detective's safety.

After thirty minutes of disorder, a truce was brought about by level-headed citizens of Marietta. Burns, escorted by Judge Newt Morris and Thomas M. Brumby, a leading business man, was bundled into an automobile and hurried at top speed toward Atlanta.

EGGS HURLED AT AUTO.

Eggs were hurled at the automobile as it whizzed through the town. Several eggs were thrown at the car, and one struck Judge Morris. Others bombarded the atmosphere.

The demonstration ensued from an incident in the Brumby garage, where Burns and Lehon were waiting for the limousine in which they had traveled to Atlanta.

DENVER AND ATLANTA TO BOOST EACH OTHER

Systematic Campaign Planned by Hotel Men's Association and Convention Bureau.

Plans were set on foot Friday afternoon for a systematic campaign of Atlanta advertisement in Denver, Colo., with a view to bringing travelers, tourists and conventionists from the west to this city.

The plan consists of a reciprocal arrangement between the Atlanta Hotel Men's association and the Denver Convention association, the plan being presented at a call meeting of the Atlanta association by Harry N. Burham, secretary of the Denver Convention association.

It is the plan of Mr. Burham that Atlanta should send its advertising literature to Denver, where it will be placed in the leading hotels, and Denver should send its advertising literature to Atlanta, where it will be placed in the leading hotels. This proposition was accepted by the Atlanta Hotel Men's association, the adoption of a resolution. It is believed that by this plan both Atlanta and Denver will greatly benefit. Especially is it expected that Denver will benefit in 1915 when the people of the south go west to Panama exposition, and in 1916 when the people of the north go west to the following year.

Mr. Burham was lamb-fall of Denver talk, and had with him a number of letters of the city and people of Denver, showing it to be a "regular" city.

Mr. Burham said that he will present the same proposition made at Atlanta. He has made reservations at the Piedmont for further week.

The club is a non-resident club, and is maintained and supported, made a permanent feature of the club's work. Atlanta's University club has been a state-wide educational influence. DEPUTY WARDEN HOBSON
PRAISED BY GRAND JURY

Report Recommends That Many Roads in County Be Graded and Paved.

Several paragraphs in the report of the Fulton county grand jury, returned to Judge Bell Friday afternoon, are devoted to praise of Deputy Warden Hobson of the Atlanta County Jail. The jury especially complimented the deputy for abolishing the old system of chaining the convicts to their beds at night, and in one paragraph comments that, since the prisoners were put on their good behavior, only three men have been whipped in three months.

The report also upholds Warden Hobson for discharging three paid Atlanta drivers and replacing them with convicts.

The report recommends that Warden Hobson's plan be put into effect in all the camps. It will save the county about $5,000 a month, the report says.

Warden Girardeau was handed a charge for not giving the convicts the jail as they are, and some of the cells are in such a state of decay that the grand jury took a rap at the jail. The report also recommends that the applications of the scrub-brush of the dirt roads in the county to be in bad condition, and recommended that they be graded and paved.

The report also was blamed for the lack of school funds. The report demands that the county school, small funds available for county schools, the institutions are inefficiently conducted. The jury recommended that all bridges across the county roads be erected. The report also recommended that the efficient service of each municipality. Then ordered the body discharged.

It appears, unwittingly, that he knew that his son had a wife in Valdosta, not knowing that he had married her. Whitsett married some weeks ago to Miss Reva Bailey, who was employed by him at one time. The brother of the Valdosta wife, Sheriff Horton located Whitsett at Montgomery, and Deputy Sheriff Hodges was sent to bring him back to Valdosta. The elder Whitsett said that his son was sending money regularly to his northern wife, who had no idea that he had married another woman. He probably be tried in the superior court which meets this month.

FRISCO ROAD FORFEITS TERMINAL TO SOUTHERN

New York, May 1.—Failure to pay interest of $149,000 due in June, 1913, on the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad company went into the hands of a receiver, has caused that company to lose its one-half interest in the Frisco terminal, amounting to $1,000,000, leaving it with only a one-fourth interest in the terminal.

In sole possession, the appellate division of the superior court has retained the Frisco terminal, and the other half of the terminal is owned by the Southern Railroad's half interest.

The court, according to documents in the case, was built in 1903 on a terminal company, issuing $1,000,000 capital stock, divided equally between the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad and the Southern Railroad.

The contract was awarded at a special meeting of the board of fire masters yesterday afternoon. Work will begin immediately, it is understood, for the house will be equipped about the time the June appointment is held in the ward.

"Harwell" will be the name of the new eighth ward house, the name will be given in honor of the late Alderman John H. Harwell, affectionately known as "Uncle John." Alderman Harwell was appointed chairman of the 1914 board of fire masters by Mayor Woodward, but he was unable to give much service because of the illness which led to his death.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 112

"Restoration of Sanity"

"Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing."

"And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant."

"And he said unto him, 'Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.'"

"And he was angry, and would not go in; therefore, came his father out and entreated him—"

"It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad; for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found."

—Luke 15:25-28, 32.

In the angry elder son, Christ pictured the so-called religious man of that day.

In our day, the sin of the elder brother, the church member, is greater: he may be outwardly glad at the prodigal's return, but the fact remains—

You, O elder brother, member of the church of God, you have a part of the boy's wasted substance, spent in riotous living.

You get a part of the price of every drink sold in the near-beer saloons and clubs of Atlanta and Georgia.

Some get more than others.

FOR EXAMPLE, THE MEMBER OF THE CLUB WHO NEVER BUYS A DRINK WITHIN ITS WALLS GETS MOST OF ALL IN A MONETARY WAY FROM ITS LAWLESS TRADE; HE PAYS ONLY HIS DUES; HE DOESN'T BUY POISON FOR HIMSELF, BUT HE GETS THE BENEFIT OF THOSE THINGS WHICH ARE PURCHASED BY THE PROFITS DERIVED FROM THE POISONS SOLD BY THE BAR TO OTHERS.

But, since members of the church of God, for business reasons, have licensed known violators of the law of Georgia to traffic in those things which destroy the souls of men and women and wreck their homes, we all get our share of this liquor money from the locker clubs and saloons and yet have the face to stand and sing "O Weary Prodigal Come" and "Welcome, Wanderer, Welcome" to the poor fools who have been plucked by our leave.

Is it right? Which is the greater shame—

To have it said, "Atlantans, Georgians, are queer; they believe a man should keep his oath of office; you cannot buy liquor there; they believe in saving people before they get into the gutter?"

OR TO HAVE IT SAID, "IN ATLANTA, GOVERNOR, JUDGES, MAYOR AND COUNCIL, SHERIFF AND POLICE, ALL IN GEORGIA RESPECT NEITHER LAWS NOR OATHS; THE LEGISLATURE ENACTS LAWS TO PREVENT MEN FROM PREYING UPON THEIR FELLOW MAN, BUT LEADING CITIZENS AND PUBLIC OFFICIALS UNITE IN IGNORING THEM AND MAKING A MOCK OF LAW?"

Which would indicate the saner condition of government?

For men are seeking and they are going to have a saner government.

Farrar, Martin and Scotti
Share Honors in Wonderful
Presentation of "Butterfly"

By Irma Dooley.

That Gertrude Farrar has a place in Atlanta's big heart that no other singer has was proven last night when, as Madame Butterfly, she drew from the largest audience of the season an appreciation and applause almost frenzied at times.

Withholding herself from the applause time to time to participate in the social gaieties of the week, she has preserved her strength and beauty of her voice that she might give of her best to all. That she gave last night superbly.

Never was her art more apparent; from the first scene with the "first love impulses," in all their intensity, when, as the variable butterfly, she flitted about the stage with consummate grace and authority, winning every individual in the audience as she moved with the young American officer and his more cautious friend, the consul.

But the butterfly had a heart that became a woman's heart and a woman's heart—when, in the scene with the consul, she sang the "I am a butterfly" song, she sang the heart and then began the tragedy which in hours through the last acts as Miss Farrar in the tender, pulsating, death-reaching notes of Puccini's entrancing music with the carrying force Toscanini's leadership always won.

And Ricardo Martin, in the beloved character, Pinkerton, made the singing voice, he sang with perfection. The British critics have decided that Martin's interpretation of this particular role is the best and the most convincing, and metropolitan critics concur in his mastery of the part.

Those who have heard the great lyric tenor in London, New York and Atlanta unanimously stated that never had they heard Martin sing with the fervor, sweetness and impressiveness that he did last night.

It was Scotti's first appearance before an Atlanta audience this season, and he deserved the splendid reception accorded him. His music came as a surprise, for he was not a Metropolitan, but he had no greater exponent of the art of music and the drama than Scotti ever gave him.

Whether as Scarpia in "Tosca," a part he has sung as the American consul, as Leauat, in Puccini's conception of it, or as the American consul, he portrayed that night Scotti's work always finished and beautiful. His music is happy that he is to sing the prologue tonight in "Pagliacci."

Catcher Munch Split Fingers in Nashville Friday—Sent Home—Billy Misses His Regulars.

It never rains but it pours. Another crack has been added to the Nashville line in the person of Dutch Munch. Munch split his finger in practice before the game with Nashville Friday.

The following wire was received by the sporting editor of The Constitution from Manager Bill Smith last night:

"Dick Jemison, sporting editor of The Constitution, and Munch split his finger in practice here today. Am sending him home tonight. We surely do miss Welchence and Long mightily. Tough one to lose today after the boys have battled out a victory. We'll be in there fighting them again tomorrow for all we are worth.

"BULLY SMITH."

"D. Noon Hudson, Atlanta, Ga.: Referring to your telegram just received, am sorry that it will be impossible for me to comply.
